

I believe it would be a mistake to allow broadband over power Lines this is an unshielded medium and could potentially severely interfere with an entire range of other radio services. I also do not believe the power companies would responsibly respond to any interference issues that will occur if this is allowed.